Fund Performance Review

NIT Government Bond Fund annualized return for the current year stood at 10.58% and its benchmark is 8.99%. The fund yielded an annualized return of 5.83% for the month of February 2013 while its benchmark stood at 8.26%.

The State Bank of Pakistan in its Monetary Policy Statement announced during the month, decided to hold Discount Rate at its current level of 9.50%. The decision to hold rates was in light of the inflationary outlook for the coming months. Consumer Price Index (CPI) for the month of February however has reduced to 7.38% from 8.07% recorded over the previous month.

State Bank's decision to hold Discount rates caused money market rates to remain volatile during the month. Two T-Bill auctions were conducted during the month which saw cut-off yields increase for all tenors. Yields at the end of the month stood at 9.2754%, 9.3621% and 9.3990% for 3, 6 and 12 months respectively.

The fund remains invested in Government Securities by about 98% of total assets mainly comprising of Treasury Bills while the remaining is in the form of cash and other assets.
