Fund Commentary & Performance Review

The benchmark KMI-30 declined by 0.64% during the month of September, 2016. The market remained in the consolidation phase with border tension between Pakistan and India causing investors to remain cautious. Foreign investors continued to remain sellers in the market with net selling of USD 41 million for the month. Despite heavy foreign selling, trading activity in the market remained positive with an average of 560 million shares traded daily, which were 117% higher as compared with the average shares traded during the month of August, 2016. Average value traded also rose by 32% to PKR 15.1 billion. While KMI-30 declined by 0.64% and KSE-30 declined by 1.01% during the month, KSE-All share index increased by 3.44% and KSE-100 index increased by 1.84% during the same period signifying bullish trend in second and third tier stocks.

NIT IEF posted a return of 1.47% for the month of September, 2016 as against a benchmark return of -0.64% showing an outperformance of 2.11%.

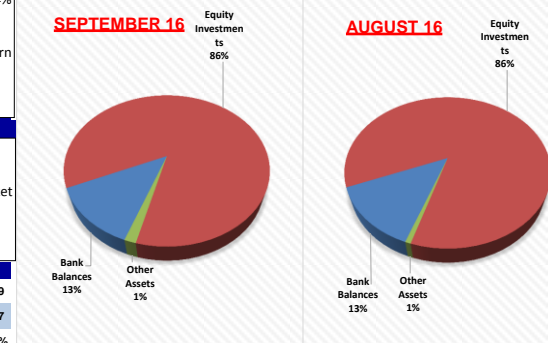

Future Outlook

Escalation of tensions along the border with India will have a negative bearing on the stock market going forward.
