The benchmark index declined by 0.96% during the month of December, 2021. The month marked the close of CY 2021 with the market posting minor gain of 1.92% during the calendar year. Calendar year 2021 started well for the market as the index witnessed a massive jump on the back of reopening of global economies and a V-shaped recovery on the domestic economic front, However, in the later part of the year, pressure on the external account, devaluation of Pak Rupee		Back End Load	0.00%	Pricing Mechanism	Historical Pricing

Ising initiationally reading, sinit in SDP's findnetary stante, outery in approval or him's start network and transition from Emerging Market to the Frontier Market put pressure on the bourse. The month of December was marred by weak investor sentiment with anticipation of the mini budget and the esulting economic implications. SBP raised its policy rate by another 100 bps during the month inflation expectations also remained high due to which the market closed in the red during the month. Foriegn selling showed some respite with net inflow of USD 5.3 million following a massive putflow of USD 141 million last month on account of Pakistan's exit from the MSCI EM Index. Verage volumes during the month stood at 235 million shares, down 25% on a MoM basis.			N/A	AMC Deting	AM1 PACRA (24-05-21)
