he KSE-100 index posted a return of 10.07% during January, 2019. Buillish trend remained prevalent in the market with trong buying activity in all major blue-chip stocks. Major trigger for the buillish trend was provided by the economic reforms ackage presented by the government during the month which carried incentives for various sector in order to induce conomic growth. Pakistan also received economic aid package tranches from both Saudi Arabia and UAE which further posted investor sentiment. Average volumes stood at 136 million shares during the month, up 4% on a MoM basis. oreigners turned net buyers in the market buying positions worth USD 16 million during the month. At the end of the month Pa nonunced a raise in policy rate by a further 25 bps during the month. The MPS statement stated that the impact of tabilization measures implemented so far is gradually unfolding and confidence is improving amidst reduced economic neertainty, but the fiscal deficit is yet to show signs of consolidation despite a reduction in PSDP spending although a			Equities Sub Fund	Debt Sub Fund	MM Sub Fund	Fund
