Fund Commentary

During the month of April 2016, the KSE-100 index gained 4.77%. Average daily trading volume improved substantially to 235 million shares an increase of by 62% MoM. The rally was primarily driven by continued uptrend in oil prices (Arab light crude up 29%MoM) along with the strong corporate earnings season season further improved the sentiments.

On the money market front, yields are expected to remain stable as the SBP kept the discount rate unchanged in its Monetary Policy announced in April, 2016.
