Fund Commentary

Fund Returns

The KSE-100 index posted a return of -2.20% during May, 2019. The market fell by almost 7% during the first fortnight of the month amidst negative sentiment particularly with reference to conditionalities associated with the IMF program. PKR remained under pressure as it touched the level of 150 against the USD for the first time in history. Expectations of further raise in interest rates coupled with expectations of high inflation number for the month further dampened market sentiment. The second half of the month however, witnessed some recovery whereby news regarding the Finance Minister meeting with market participants and announcing market stabilization measures including market support fund caused a minor rally as the market recovered most of its losses of the first half of the month. Ramadan effect caused volumes to remain lower which stood at 123 million shares during the month, a decline of 13% MoM. Foreign investors remained net buyers for the second consecutive month with net buying of USD 18.42 million. On 20th May 2019, SPB issued its monetary policy statement which stated that there is a need to address underlying inflationary pressures from higher recent month-on-month headline and core inflation outputs; recent exchange rate depreciation; an elevated fiscal deficit and its increased monetization, and potential adjustments in utility tariffs. In this context, the MPC decided to increase the policy rate by 150 bps to 12.25 percent. On the Money Market front, secondary market yields remained stable during the month.		Equities Sub Fund	Debt Sub Fund	MM Sub Fund	Commodities Sub Fund
